

I use an independent ISP because I like having the very quick and helpful service that I get, compared to friends who get their DSL directly from SBC. While I know that my DSL service is provided in the end by SBC, the independent services keep pressure on SBC to maintain reasonable service and prices. The local phone services TRULY NEED to be regulated and required to provide services through independents to protect consumers.